

Visiting the Leon County Northeast Branch Library

LEROY COLLINS
LEON COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Today, I am going to visit my library.

This is the front of my library.

When I walk up to the entrance of the library,
the doors will open automatically.

This is the lobby of my library.

When I enter the library, I am in the lobby.
The book drops and the bathrooms are here.

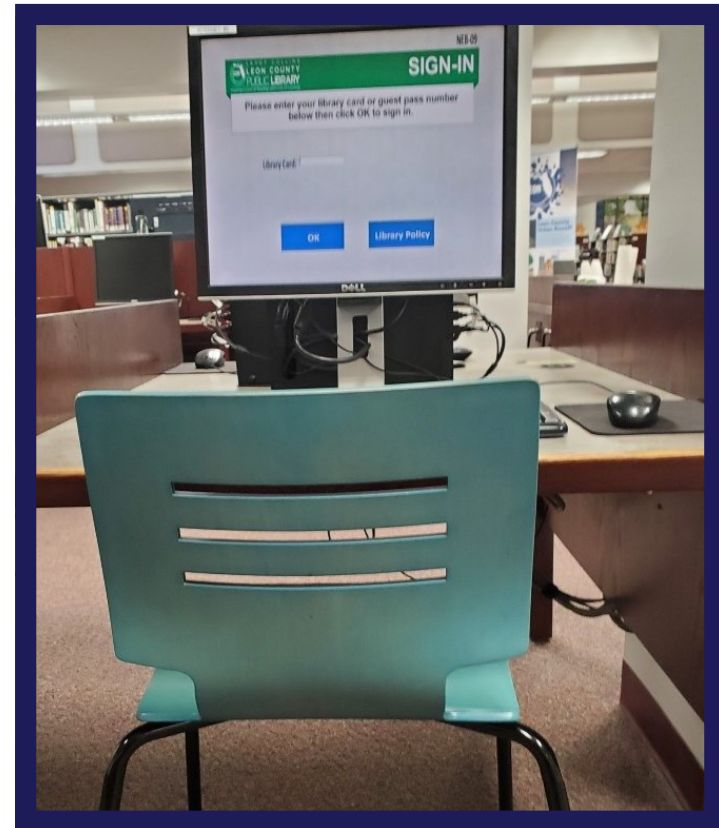

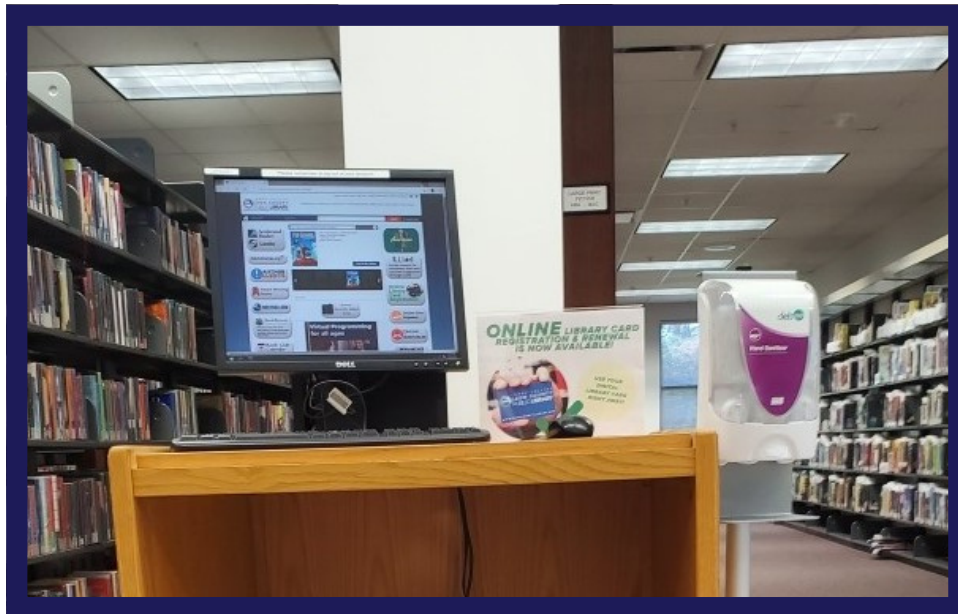

These are the book drops at my library.

They are in the lobby, and I can return the books, magazines, and media (DVDs, CDs, Launchpads) that I have checked out into the book drop.

These are the restrooms at my library.

The restrooms are in the lobby at my library. I wash my hands when I am finished. I use paper towels to dry my hands.

My library has computers.

I can use some of the computers to find books and movies at the library. On the public internet computers, I can search for information and play games with my grown-up.

The children's books are in the back corner.

There are many books in my library. They are neat and organized and all have a space on the shelf where they belong.
My library has rules. I will talk quietly. I will walk. I will stay with my grown-up.
I can ask the nice Librarians for help if I am looking for something or if I get separated from my group.

This is the Circulation Area at my library.

When I am ready to leave the library, I need to bring the items I want to borrow to the Circulation Area.

I will use my library card to checkout my items.

Sometimes there is a line and I will be patient as we wait our turn.

I can use the self-checkout machine to check out my own things.

There are people who work at the library ready to help me.

I might hear lots of beeping sounds in this area.

I am ready to go home.

Sometimes when I leave the library, I might see a red light and hear an alarm beep. It is loud, but I don't have to worry. It means that someone forgot to check out a book before they left.
